

Case study: Detailed planning and support in the implementation of a new warehouse in Łódź

Changing a warehouse requires a detailed plan and thorough preparation

Client

MDH sp. z o.o. founded in 1998. The company suggest solutions in the field of orthopedics and rehabilitation. Producer of orthotics, Producer rehabilitation items. It is part of the Meyra Group. The new MDH warehouse located in 7R Park Łódź West is a distribution center for Central and Eastern Europe with an area of approx. 10,000 m².

Goal

Preparation of a new warehouse for operational operation based on the Masterplan previously implemented by Changers Consultant. Changers' support in launching the new warehouse concerned such areas as the purchase of equipment, human resources organization, and the organization of a new facility.

Scope

- Detailed specification of equipment for the needs of the tender process, support in purchasing and contracting deliveries
- Recruitment for the position of a warehouse manager
- Designing the organization of the warehouse, support in choosing a WMS system

Result

- Securing appropriate competences for operational warehouse management
- Ensuring the proper sequence and security of supplies of equipment worth several hundred thousand EUR
- Ensuring consistency of the implemented WMS with the process concept of the Masterplan

